About Huatone China

Access China @ the forefront®

Founded in 2010 in Beijing, China, Huatone China Strategic Investment Solutions, Inc. ("Huatone China") is a multi-industry international business consulting firm specializing in market intelligence, strategic planning, investment advisory, and management training solutions.

We are a knowledge-driven company, committed to China's long-term economic prosperity, and priding ourselves in promoting and enabling win-win business collaboration between Greater China and the rest of the world.

Our clients include both outbound companies in the Greater China region and inbound growth-stage and mid-market international companies, sharing a common keen interest in partaking of the abundant and exciting opportunities in China's historic and unprecedented transformation.

Our vision is to grow into a recognized force in China's business globalization, and in the process, build an enduring, respected professional service firm, a trusted partner for every client we serve.
